In Remembrance

Dear Parents, Students and Friends of John XXIII College

Today on the 11th of November, the College stopped to commemorate Remembrance Day. It was a very reverent gathering of College students on the Chapel Lawn and we were inspired through an address by Mr John Liston, an Alumni of the College, and a very decorated soldier. He spoke of the great gallantry shared by Australian soldiers, particularly the recent deaths of Australian soldiers in Afghanistan, Iraq and Timor Leste. Of particular poignancy for us is the loss of Sgt Matt Locke, the father of Keegan Locke Year 11. It was a very prayerful and reflective time; well prepared by our liturgist Mary Anne Lumley and beautifully presided at by Fr Gaetan and student leaders.

I have returned from a period of sick leave and express my sincere appreciation to the College Leadership Team, especially Mr Watson, for taking on so many extra duties at such a busy time of the year.

Next Tuesday we will celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the consecration of the Chapel. This will be a special milestone in the history of the College and a day of great thanksgiving for the efforts of those involved in the establishment of the Mt Claremont Campus. Parents wishing to join us for Mass and morning tea at 10.00am are very welcome.

Please RSVP to Bernadette Canny on 9383 0404.

Together let us seek justice.
Yours sincerely

(Mrs) Anne Fry—Principal

In the spirit of John XXIII, Mary Ward and Ignatius Loyola, our College seeks to develop people of competence, conscience and compassion, who are committed to God and the service of others.
Dear Parents

What a glorious day we had at school today! Our whole school community commenced the day with a Remembrance Day Assembly. The primary children are to be congratulated on the terrific way they conducted themselves throughout the assembly.

Our children in PP-2 are very excited about commencing their swimming lessons on Monday 14th November. Parents are very welcome to observe their child during the swimming lessons at Claremont Swimming Pools. Please contact Mr Alderman if you have any queries about the swimming lessons.

Thank you for your patience with the access and also parking restrictions due to the building and air-conditioning project. The builders are working closely with the school and we are most grateful for your cheerful cooperation. Thanks also to all parents who are phoning the office or emailing the school before 9am to inform us that your child is sick and will not be attending school. May I remind all parents that if you have an appointment in the morning or are running late, you will need to also phone the office or email primary.absentees@johnxxiii.edu.au. Please note, that if the front office is not notified, and the class roll has already been taken, you may still receive an email from the school stating that your child is absent. Thank you for your co-operation in this matter.

On Friday 18th November, Mrs Fontaine and the students from 5G are kindly preparing a Mass for the primary school community. Everyone is welcome to join us at 9am in the Chapel.

Kind regards

Antoinette De Pinto
Head of Primary

Our Year 3 students enjoyed their visit to the Hyogo Cultural Centre this

Just a reminder, our Kindy and Pre Primary children and their siblings are not permitted to play on the playground equipment before or after school.

Why? Because there is no teacher on duty in these areas at these times and your child may be at risk of an accident.
Chaplain’s Comments

As Catholics, we have no problems with the time-bound nature of the Bible. In fact, we appreciate it, believing that scriptures deserve to be read within their context, and also need careful interpretation. And while Catholic Feminist Association may not choose to have today’s first reading as their opening text at their next convention, we would be mistaken to hear it only in terms of our world today.

A capable wife, who can find her? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have not lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. She girds herself with strength, and makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. Her children rise up and call her happy; her husband too, and praises her; “Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all.” Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her a share in the fruit of her hand, and let her works praise her in the city gates. (Proverbs 31:10-13, 16-18, 20, 26, 28-31)

The Book of Proverbs is a distillation of sayings and teachings that had grown up over hundreds of years, most probably from rabbis and scribes. Its world is a vastly different one from ours. This is clearly seen in the tasks of the ‘capable’. She is praised for her work with wool and flax, in the vineyard and in real estate. It’s in the context of an agrarian society that the power of this text makes sense.

Until quite recently, women in Palestinian society, and in wider society for that matter, were considered the ‘possessions’ of their husbands. They could be bought (dowry or bride price), sold, divorced, or killed without any appeal to the law. Wives in this society had no legally recognised human rights. They were expected to serve and shut up.

In contrast the book of Proverbs was a liberating text in its day. A woman’s right to work is not only defended, but also extolled. She is praised for her creativity, wisdom, goodness, strength, sense of justice, generosity, joy and faith. In any age and for either gender this is not a bad list of virtues towards which we should all aspire.

It is almost possible that Jesus had women in mind when he shared the parable of the talents in this weekend’s Gospel. “The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents” Talents originally designated a weight; its later usage referred to a person’s innate qualities or skills entrusted for development in service. What can often get lost in the debates about who should be ordained in today’s church is that women have always and still ‘lead’ the church in powerful and long lasting ways. From the extraordinary abilities of religious and lay women in Catholic welfare, education, health care, overseas missions, and theological institutions to wives and mothers who daily witness to the fidelity and goodness of God, all this reveals in innumerable ways the power of the parable of the talents. The reality is that if it were not for women’s leadership, commitment, and faith, it would be hard how to see how the church could survive. We would not be able to continue almost in all our ministries.

Yet none of this minimises the pain and hurt some women have experienced at the hands of Church. Some feel as though the particular contribution to the life of the churches not been fully realised. All we can hope and pray for is that we may find ways to use everyone’s talents for the building up of the kingdom of God, and that we may see that everyone’s contribution, irrespective of gender, is precious and worthy of praise.

Health Information

WHY EAT BREAKFAST?

Breakfast refuels the body with vitamins, minerals and energy needed for a busy morning’s activities. When we do not eat breakfast we are more likely to feel restless, unable to concentrate, lack energy, suffer headaches and nausea.

It is important to encourage children to eat breakfast. A good night’s sleep followed by breakfast in the morning helps children stay active and concentrate at school. It also means your child is less likely to get too hungry during the morning.

Don’t forget how important your example is. Let your child see you making time to enjoy breakfast every day.

Here are some healthy breakfast ideas:

- Heart tick cereal and low fat milk
- Porridge
- Wholemeal or multigrain bread or toast
- Fresh fruit salad
- Fresh or stewed fruit and yoghurt
- Toast toppings, such as baked beans, eggs, cheese or spreads
- Omelette with tomatoes, mushrooms, and spinach.
- Fruit smoothie with low fat milk or yoghurt
- Muffins or crumpets
- Wrap a banana in wholemeal bread or fruit bread

Thank you

Jenny Hill (College nurse)

Australian Computational and Linguistics Olympiad 2012

OzCLO is the Australian Computational and Linguistics Olympiad, a state and national competition for secondary students. It introduces students to language puzzles from which they can learn about the richness, diversity and systematic nature of language, while exercising natural logic and reasoning skills. Linguistics is a wide-ranging discipline that explores the nature of human language. It’s concerned with what languages have in common and how they are different, how they are structured, how they are learnt, how they are used in different cultures and societies, and how they change over time.

The competition is designed for students from Years 9 to 12. Past experience shows that there is appeal across humanities and science interests. Students who like language and languages, maths, computers, or natural sciences are likely to be interested in this competition. In the competition, all teams will complete the same tasks, but teams will be ranked within their age level: Junior (Years 9-10), or Senior (Years 11-12). Teams consist of four students.

What?
An optional training session will be held at UWA on February 22nd, 2012 for students who have not competed in OzCLO before. At that session UWA staff will explain the details of the competition, talk about linguistics, computational linguistics and language technologies, and provide sample problems and give tips for solving them!

When?
Expressions of interest are welcome as soon as possible.

Has anyone got a jewelry type cross of any description, it does not matter how simple, that they would like to donate to be used as a Christmas gift for a group of newly arrived Christian refugees.

These refugees have been persecuted in their own country because they are Christian and have specifically requested a crucifix to wear around their neck.

Emerging Tigers Program

A Specialist High Performance Cricket Program For Year 8, 9 and 10 Students at John XXIII

Claremont Nedlands is committed to developing talented junior cricketers from John XXIII. The program will be designed to produce District* quality cricketers who can represent CNCC in the Under 17s District competition, as 15 and 16 year olds.

Some boys will already be playing District cricket (13s,14s or 15s) and many others will be playing community cricket (North west Zone).

We will be launching the Emerging Tigers on November the 14 at Creswell park in Swanbourne. We have appointed Chris Brabazon as Coach. Chris is a level 3 coach (one of the few in the state) has worked as a WACA cricket officer and is currently splitting his time playing high level cricket in the UK and Perth.

The sessions will run from 5.00pm to 6.30pm through the normal cricket season and will focus on elite skill development across batting, bowling, and fielding.

Anyone already registered with CNJCC will be contacted and invited to attend – but this program is open to all talented cricketers from John XXIII (preferably from years 8, 9 and 10 but some year 7 and 11 students may be invited to participate).

John XXIII fully supports the program and regular feedback will be provided to the College on the numbers and progress of the program.

If you would like to be part of this program or have any questions please call Karl Hombergen on 0432373305.

John XXIII Rowing Club

As you know rowing is an expensive sport. As a result a large part of the funding of the John XXII College Rowing Club comes from fundraising. Last year our fundraising helped purchase a new quad. This year we aim to raise funds for the ongoing maintenance of our boats and allow us to purchase new equipment.

This year we are selling Mad Bay Wines from the Howard Park Winery. These wines are available from bottle shops at about $19.99 (single bottle price) under the Mad Fish Label. We sell them at $11.66 a bottle ($140.00 per case).

An order form has been attached to this email and we ask that you embrace this fundraiser and send it out to your friends, family and work colleagues. It is after all, a great time to stock up on wine.

We all look forward to an awesome rowing season!
Inspired by the essence of coastal Western Australia, Mad Bay is made to enjoy with long lunches, warm nights, cool breezes and good friends. Be transported by this exciting wine to a place where the sun meets the sea and where you want to be.

In Memoriam
Fr John Eddy SJ died in Canberra on Sunday evening very peacefully after entering palliative care the week before. There will be a vigil service at the Yarralumla Church on Thursday evening, and the Requiem Mass will take place at St Christopher’s Cathedral at 10.00am on Friday, with the internment to take place in Canberra too, the first Jesuit burial there but so fitting for someone who was the founding father of the Jesuit mission in the national capital.

Fr John was born at Cottesloe in 1933 and educated at St Louis from 1938 to 1948, which puts him in the first generation of students; he was a precocious student, and in time became a professional historian and teacher.

May he rest in peace
