

Magis (Gifted and Talented Programme)

Dear Parents, Students and Friends of John XXIII College

It is with pleasure that I announce the College has appointed our inaugural MAGIS PROGRAM Coordinator. Magis is the Latin word for "more to a greater extent" and this will be the philosophy behind our academic extension program which will be in place for students in year 7—12.

The Magis Coordinator will be Dr Annette Pedersen who has a substantial background in Gifted and Talented education in a variety of schools and universities. Throughout the year the College has been exploring ways of identifying students who have the potential to develop through the Magis program.

This exciting initiative will ensure that our students are appropriately challenged and that their God given talents are brought to fruition.

On the same positive note there has been plenty of evidence of the extraordinary talent and gifts of our students.

Tournament of Minds.

The college recently was awarded 2 of the 4 state titles in the secondary division of the Tournament. Our state finalists will travel now to Darwin to represent WA at the national finals.

Visual Arts Exhibition

The standard of work exhibited by our Year 12 artists and students Year 7 to 11 was outstanding. It was clear that our visual art students are challenged to do their very best in their pursuit of excellence. Congratulations to Mrs Deb Ellery, Mrs Jane Roche, Ms Louise Hoy and Ms Lauren Nish.

Year 12 Musical Recital and Gala Concert

Both these events gave an opportunity to see the depth of musical talent in the College. The confidence of our Senior Musicians and Ensembles, the joy and competence of our Year 3 Music Theatre Group and the massed choirs were a great tribute to their hard work and talent. A special thank you to Mrs Toni Strong, Mrs Liz Jennings, Ms Rosalie Hampton, Mrs Shelley Morrell, Mr David Dockery and all the staff who together extend the gifts and talents of our musicians.

ACC A Division Athletics Carnival

A very strong performance from our team saw us consolidate our place in A Division for ACC

Athletics. This is an extremely tough and competitive division and we compete against Colleges much larger than ourselves.

While we are introducing additional extensions next year for our students, there is already ample evidence that students are given great opportunity to develop their gifts and talents at John XXIII College. Happy Holidays, safe travel to our Pilgrims and all families who are travelling. I am attending the celebrations in Rome for Mary MacKillop and will be back from my leave on the 20th October. Mr Rob Novacsek will be the Acting Head of Secondary and Miss Adriana Coniglio will be the Acting Head of Primary.

Congratulations and best wishes to our Student Leadership Team for 2011

Chaplains Comments

Sunday is the Social Justice Sunday and the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference present Violence in Australia: A message of peace.

On 25 October 2009, Gearoid Walsh, a young Irish tourist visiting Sydney, died tragically in an exploding violent situation. Mrs. Treasa Walsh, his mother responded to the death of her son, made this remarkable story. She felt for the man who struck Gearoid. "I am heartbroken for him because we don't blame him we don't want him to serve time in prison". Mrs Walsh response reminds us how radical and central are Jesus teachings about peacemaking in the Gospel. There is nothing weak or cowardly in acting in this way. It shows true strength.

Social Justice Sunday invites us to see what is before our eyes, in ourselves, our family and communities and in our nation. It names the consumerist society in which we live as feeding our desire for material things and deluding us that these possessions will make us happy. Our frustration when these ill formed desires are not met is one source of the anger that we feel, and this can themselves be expressed in violence.

We get a quick clue to the kingdom values right at the beginning of the parable Jesus tells today. We hear of "a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen" and are told that "at his gate lay a poor man..." We don't know who the rich man is but the poor man is given the dignity of a name: Lazarus. The poor man is not worth much in the eyes of the world, but he has dignity in the eyes of God, Kingdom values are different from the world's values. Of course the rich man is also a child of God, with inherent dignity- but that dignity doesn't come from his wealth and possessions.

The story does not portray Lazarus as notably virtuous in way. It is his poor and neglected condition that is the object of God's action. Nor is the rich man wicked in other respects. It is simply that his luxury so absorbed him that he did not notice and not noticing, sealed his fate.

Perhaps his lack of a name signifies his lack of understanding of what constitutes true value, true worth. And perhaps his namelessness is also an invitation to us to put ourselves in his place to supply him with our name. And then to say: What is the excess wealth that I have? What are the gifts that I am wasting? Who are the people and what are the needs that I am ignoring? This theme is struck in the first reading. Amos warns against those who "are at ease", those who "feel secure," those who "are not grieved over the ruin of other". We must recognise our connectedness to others, our responsibility, and then determine how we can live it out. Happy and Restful Holidays!

To Parents of Years 3, 5, 7 & 9

The NAPLAN reports arrived at the College this week. They will be posted this week and accompanied with an explanatory pamphlet for parents. These tests provide valuable nationwide feedback on how your child is performing against established benchmarks.

However, it should be acknowledged that they are singular tests and as such are a snapshot of your child's performance on the day of the test. It is the College's position that the best feedback regarding your child's progress is from his or her teachers.

Tournament of Minds 2010 State Finals Result

John XXIII was represented by four teams at the second round of the Tournament of Minds problem solving competition held at the University of Western Australia on Sunday September 12. John XXIII joined another seven secondary schools hoping to represent WA in their discipline to compete at the Australian Pacific Finals to be held in Darwin in October. Our Language Literature and Maths Engineering teams clinched victory at the State Finals while our Social Science and Applied Technology teams were awarded Tournament Honours in recognition of their efforts in reaching the top 15% of teams in their discipline.

The challenge for the Language Literature team was to create a play based on a quest. This was to include a four verse ballad, where each verse began and used alliteration from consecutive letters of the alphabet. So the tale of Pizza Quattro was born, and in the quest to deliver pizzas, their hero encountered medieval obstacles and discovered romance. The Maths Engineering team had to devise a structure with limited resources to pick up three items. The team substantiated the need for such a device by explaining that modern technology such as Ipods and video gaming consoles have left our youth with useless arm muscles. Apart from the successful demonstration of the device, the highlight of their humorous performance had to be the Peter Panda Dance inspired from the movie, The Pacifier.

Congratulations to all students for your hard work, enthusiasm and commitment over the last two months of this competition. We thank you for taking up the challenge and hope you have developed new friendships and skills in problem solving and team work. Special thanks to the following staff who facilitated our most successful tournament: Louise Scharf, Nick Warrington, Anne Joyner, Dawn Plummer, Lyn Plant and Judy McLean.

Thank you to all the staff involved on the day and for the training leading up to the carnival. I'd particularly like to thank the PE staff and our parent coaches, Tim Lyons, Dave Court and John Paxton for their time and effort. Most importantly thank you to all students for their efforts at the carnival. Detailed results from the carnival are now available on the ACC web site at:

Tarn Reynolds Community Development Officer

City Of Nedlands Sponsorship of Youth Initiatives Fund

The purpose of the fund is to recognise and encourage the initiatives local young people are taking to participate in and contribute to the community. The fund encourages youth participation in a wide range of socially positive activities, based on the following:

- that participation in the community is in itself of value
- that participation in the community by young people, in particular, is to be valued and encouraged.

The City acknowledges the importance of recognising the positive interests and achievements of young people and encourages the pursuit of these interests within the community. In this way, the City works towards creating and reinforcing positive youth role models. In its leadership role, Council demonstrates, through its Youth Initiatives Fund, the value that community leaders place on young people's initiative and positive community involvement. The function of the fund is not primarily one of financial subsidy; rather, it is one of recognition and encouragement, and the creation of a positive youth culture, in which initiative, achievement and community involvement are valued.

Support from Council will be provided in the form of a small grant, subsidising participation in the eligible project, event or activity.

Eligible Applicants

- Young people living within the City of Nedlands

- aged between 12 and 21 years, or
- Organisations providing services to young people living within the City of Nedlands and aged between 12 and 21 years.
- Grants are limited one per financial year for each applicant. Therefore a successful applicant cannot reapply within the same financial year.
- Applicants must have satisfactorily acquitted any previous grant or grants received under the Fund, in order to be eligible to reapply.

Eligible Projects

- Projects eligible for funding support will be those events, projects and activities that provide an opportunity for youth participation in the wider community and support their artistic, cultural, community, educational, professional, technological, sporting, recreational, personal and/or social development. Projects or activities that have commenced before the application is assessed will not be eligible for funding. To ensure assessment of application before the event, applications must be submitted at least 4 weeks prior to the event.
- To be considered for sponsorship the youth project, event or activity should fit under one of the following categories:
 - Arts and Culture.
 - Sport, Recreation and Leisure.
 - Other.

Guidelines

1. Grants cannot be spent on capital items.
2. Funding will be provided to a maximum of $250 per applicant.
3. The combined amount allocated to the categories of Arts and Culture plus Other will be at least greater than the amount allocated to the Sport, Recreation and Leisure category.
4. Young applicants are encouraged to write the applications themselves.
5. The City of Nedlands must be acknowledged in any publicity associated with the event.
6. Grant acquittal reports must be provided within three months of the completion of the project, and include a financial report.
7. Should the report not be provided within 3 months, Council may request the refunding of the grant.
8. No more than four applicants will be granted sponsorship from the same organisation in one financial year.
9. No more than four applicants will be granted sponsorship from the same event in one financial year.

The successful applicant will be required to submit 2 colour photographs of the event and grant the City of Nedlands permission to use them publicly.

Condolences

Catherine McDonnell - 1955-2010

A much loved and respected member of our community, Catherine McDonnell died last Monday 13th September after a brave and dignified struggle with cancer. Catherine McDonnell was a teacher at the College for fifteen years, 1990 to 2005. She was the Learning Area Coordinator for Languages, Teacher of Italian, Religious Education and the Ward 6 Tutor Teacher.

Catherine is remembered as a teacher with an immense passion for learning, for beauty and for life! She believed in using Italian in the classroom from the first encounter and immersed her students into the language experience via opera, food, art, adventure, theatre, rock music, history and culture! Education was the vehicle she chose to share her love of Italy, literature and travel. She was a strong woman of incredible intellect, energy and drive.

As Learning Area Coordinator, Catherine was committed to regular student exchanges, the opportunity for all Year Eights to study two languages, Languages Week, opportunities to experience language in the local community and fun-filled, interactive lessons. Under her leadership the number of the number of languages and the number of students studying a language increased.

We will memorialise Catherine with a plaque in the Garden of Remembrance beside our chapel.

Our sincere condolences to her husband, Michael, the McDonnell Family and her relatives at the College, the Kohlen Family.
